The 13th revised edition of the ultimate hockey guide and authoritative source. Sportswriter Sherry Ross brings alive the magic and appeal of hockey with evaluations of every active NHL player -- more than 430 stars and role players from all 27 teams, with their photos, lifetime stats, heroics, flops, season records, injuries, and scouting evaluations of strengths and weaknesses. Diagrams show you every player's preferred shooting angles and each goalies weak spots. This year, she also includes a list of the NHL's top 100 scorers, plus breakdowns of the league leaders in the categories of goals and assists, powerplay goals, and goalie statistics. From scouts, coaches, general managers, and players, get expert evaluations of the physical, mental, and fitness aspects of each NHL player's game including who kills the penalties and who makes them, who takes the hits and who dishes them out. Get the insider facts about team dynamics -- who the true leaders are, as well as the renegades, the self-promoters, and the team players. Take a good look at each team's rookies, and find out how they fit into the future of the organization and how they could shape the game this year and in years to come. All hockey enthusiasts, from the casual fan to the professional scout, won't want to miss this incredible rundown of the NHL This latest edition by Ross is sure to become a best-seller yet again. Keep it near your TV, and view each face-off from an informed perspective, from summer camp through the regular season to the Stanley Cup finals.
